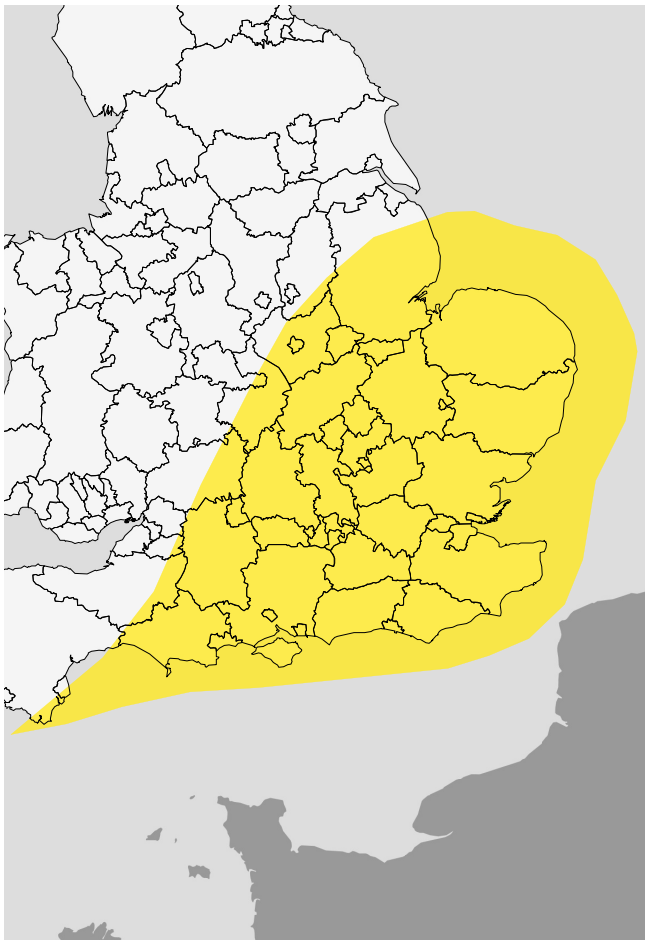
Yellow warning
Wind

Between
09:00 Sat 15 Jul 2023 and
23:59 Sat 15 Jul 2023



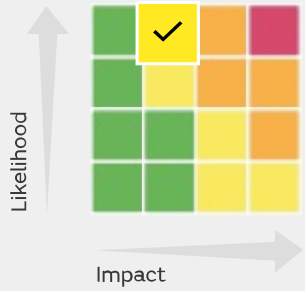
An unseasonably windy day is likely on Saturday.

What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some damage to trees or temporary structures such as marquees, tents & inflatables, could occur

Further details

A deep area of low pressure will affect parts of the UK on Saturday with some very strong gusts of wind likely to its south. A blustery and showery day (with some thunder) will see winds gust widely to 40 mph, and locally up to 50 to 55 mph during the daytime. The strongest gusts are likely to occur mainly, but by no means exclusively, over hills and along the south coast. Some minor damage and travel disruption is likely. Winds will moderate later in the evening and overnight.



✓ High likelihood of low impacts
